Herschel E. Richard, Jr. elected as President of the Louisiana Bar Foundation Fellows

The Louisiana State Bar Foundation elected Herschel E. Richard, Jr. as the President, for 2010 and 2011. Mr. Richard was inducted at the Annual Meeting of Fellows in Destin, Fl.

The Louisiana Bar Foundation (LBF) is a non-profit that exists to preserve, honor and improve the system of justice by funding, developing and otherwise promoting efforts which enhance the legal profession, increase public understanding of the legal system and advance the reality of equal justice under the law. The LBF supports programs that provide free legal services for the poor in all 64 parishes of the state of Louisiana.

Mr. Richard received his undergraduate degree from Tulane University and his law degree from Louisiana State University, where he was a member of the Louisiana Law Review. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, the International Society of Barristers. This year, he was recognized the Top of the Top Attorney List by SB Magazine. He is the current president of Cook Yancey King & Galloway as well.

Cook Yancey is the largest law firm in Northwest Louisiana. In business since 1914, the firm has more than 40 lawyers working together to provide full-service representation across a broad range of client needs.

Cook Yancey King and Galloway is located at 333 Texas in the Regions Bank building. For more information call 221-6277 or visit www.cookyancey.com.
